Reservation for Scheduled Castes

†2919. SHRI KRISHAN LAL BALMIKI: Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a commission has been constituted by the Central Government on the subject of reservation for Scheduled Castes;

(b) whether there is a provision to provide special opportunity by fixing a separate quota for the communities among the Scheduled Castes who have not been able to take benefit of reservation, after the constitution of this commission;

(c) whether all castes could not get the benefit of the reservation system for Scheduled Castes in the country uniformally and the details of action being taken by Government in this regard; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRIMATI SUBBULAKSHMI JAGADEESAN): (a) The Government of India has set up a National Commission to examine the issue of Sub-Categorisation of Scheduled Castes in Andhra Pradesh with specified terms of reference.

(b) The terms of the said Commission are as under:—

(i) To examine the various facts of the demand for sub-categorization of Scheduled Castes in Andhra Pradesh subsequent to the judgement of the Supreme Court of India in the case of E.V. Chinnaiah Vs State of Andhra Pradesh & others [2004(9) Scale].

(ii) To examine the Constitutional, statutory and legal ramifications of the demand for sub-categorisation of Scheduled Castes.

(iii) To make recommendations on the future course of action, clearly specifying the grounds and the criteria on which these recommendations are based.

(c) & (d) The endeavour is to bring about over all development of Scheduled Castes listed in the Presidential Orders made under Article 341(1) of the Constitution of India and amended from time to time by Acts of Parliament under Article 341(2) of the Constitution.

Welfare of older persons

2920. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL:
SHRI DARA SINGH:

Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether a Parliamentary Standing Committee has lambasted Government's casual approach relating to the welfare of older persons;
